

YOU ARE SPECIAL

Many have loved me

But I've only loved you,

Many have wanted me

But I've only wanted you.

Many have seen me

But I've only seen you.

All this time it's been you.

Many have cared

But you never did,

Many are they that are gentle

But you don't have to,

Many give me flowers

But i don't feel their fragrance.

All the time I still think about you

THE POERTY MARKET

Many have looks

But your eyes are hooked in mine,

Many speak true

But your words are engraved in me,

Many buy me gifts

But you didn't buy any.

All but all it's always been you.

Many are but special

But to me you remain extraordinary,

Many are lost in my beauty

But beauty and charm are deceptive,

Many think am strong

But only God knows how lonely and weak I am,

All has changed nothing about you.

POETRY MARKET

Many have moved on

But i failed to forget,

Many have taken new opportunities

But i seem foolish,

Many have thought am selfish

But all I have done is love mysteriously

All but all anyways: it's gonna be you.

Many have come

But yet have gone,

Many have loved

But yet got breakage-prone

Many have been hoping

But hopes are slaves that don't have vacation.

All this time...maybe it's never been you.
