Art to Move, Touch & Inspire the Soul

Indigo Ball the owner of the Indigo Art Gallery attended Temple University and received a Bachelor of Art in Art History and the University of Pennsylvania, Wharton Small Business Development Center

Indigo's love of art began when she worked at the Philadelphia Museum of Art during the Pablo Picasso exhibit and she opened her gallery soon after graduating from college and employed 25 Art Consultants.

Indigo's accomplishments include Art Director, Art Auctioneer on Cruise Ships & Art Gallery Owner in Philadelphia, California and Maui, Hawaii.

Indigo moved to Maui Hawaii 12 years ago and began traveling to French Polynesia Tahiti on the Paul Gauguin luxury cruises to the Society Islands in French Polynesia where her husband adorned her with a Tahitian Pearl necklace from each island

Head to Wailuku for pastries from a "mom and pop" bakery, or head to Lahaina for a taste of Maui's famed farm to table cuisine. From shimmering beaches and sacred Iao Valley to migrating humpback whales and sunset on Haleakala, it's not surprising Maui was voted the "Best Island" by the readers of Conde Nast Traveler for more than twenty years.

Departure Date: January 21, 2017 Ship: m/s Paul Gauguin Discover your own island inspiration in the destination that enchanted painter Paul Gauguin, author James A. Michener, and countless others. In one wonderful week, you'll explore the best of the South Pacific, with stops in lush Huahine, beautiful Bora Bora, and postcard-perfect Moorea. Once you've made these islands your home—even if just for a week—they'll always be calling for you to return.

Highlights •Divers traveling with us between December and March will enjoy the adrenaline rush of seeing hammerhead sharks and schools of eagle rays in their natural habitats. •Spend a relaxing day on Motu Mahana, our very own private islet, complete with white-sand beaches, swaying palm trees, a barbecue lunch, drinks served in coconuts, and a floating lagoon bar. •Explore Bora Bora your way—visit our exclusive white-sand beach with volleyball, snorkeling, kayaking or paddleboarding, or opt for an optional four-wheel-drive safari, aquabike excursion, or glass bottom boat ride. •Enjoy an overnight in Moorea, giving you plenty of time to marvel at mountain peaks, lounge near blue lagoons, and sample the fresh, local cuisine. Owned by Pacific Beachcomber S.C., the leader in French Polynesia luxury destination resorts, Paul Gauguin Cruises operates the award-winning luxury cruise ship the m/s Paul Gauguin, which provides an exceptional cruise experience tailored to the unparalleled wonders of Tahiti, the South Pacific, and Fiji. Launched in 1998, the renowned, 5+-star m/s Paul Gauguin was built specifically to sail the waters of Tahiti, French Polynesia, and the South Pacific and is the longest continually operating year-round luxury cruise ship in this enchanting destination. No other luxury ship in history has offered this level of single-destination focus and expertise on a year-round basis for such an extended period of time. With more than 25 years of experience in the French Polynesian tourism market, Pacific Beachcomber is the country's largest luxury hotel and cruise operator in the region. In addition to The Gauguin, Pacific Beachcomber operates seven award-winning hotels and is committed towards achieving environmental and social sustainability. Most recently, Pacific Beachcomber opened The Brando, an award-winning luxury eco-resort on the private island of Tetiaroa, on July 1, 2014.
