

International Seminar on The Security Implications of Emerging Climate Altering Technologies

Royal Military Academy
Hobbemastraat 8, 1000 Brussels
23 October 2019

PROGRAMME

13:00-14:00 Arrival of Participants / Registration / Welcome Coffee

14:00-14:15 Opening of the Seminar

Welcome by the Seminar Organisers

Opening Remarks by Didier Reynders, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign and European Affairs and Defence, Kingdom of Belgium

Introduction to the Programme and Objectives by Alexander Verbeek, Policy Director, Environment & Development Resource Centre / Founder, Institute for Planetary Security

14:15-15:45 Session 1: Understanding Geoengineering and its Security Implications

Moderator: Ashley McIlvain Moran, Director, State Fragility Initiative, Robert Strauss Center for International Security and Law, University of Texas at Austin

The Promise and Perils of Intervention in the Climate System by Oliver Morton, Briefings Editor, The Economist (formerly Energy and Environment Editor) / Former, Chief News and Features Editor, Nature / Author of The Planet Remade: How Geoengineering Could Change the World

Introduction to Geoengineering: Feasibility, Costs and Impacts, by Dr Jason Blackstock, Associate Professor, Department of Science, Technology, Engineering and Public Policy (STePP), Faculty of Engineering Science, University College of London

The Security Implications of Geoengineering by Major General ANM Muniruzzaman (Ret.), Chairman, Global Military Advisory Council on Climate Change (GMACCC) / President, Bangladesh Institute for Peace and Security Studies (BIPSS)

The Geopolitical Risks of Geoengineering by Prof François Gemenne, FNRS Senior Research Associate, University of Liège

Discussion

International Seminar on The Security Implications of Emerging Climate Altering Technologies

Royal Military Academy
Hobbemastraat 8, 1000 Brussels
23 October 2019

15:45-16:15 Coffee Break

16:15-17:45 Session 2: Ensuring Security through Geoengineering Governance

Moderator: Dr Harris Gleckman, Senior Fellow, Center for Governance and Sustainability, University of Massachusetts Boston / Director, Benchmark Environmental Consulting

Existing and alternative Approaches to Geoengineering Governance by Samantha Gross
Fellow - Foreign Policy, Energy Security and Climate Initiative, Brookings Institution

Applying European and International Law Principles and Practice to Geoengineering Governance by Tsvetelina Filipova, Senior Policy Analyst, Climate and Environmental Governance Programme, Institute for European Environmental Policy

Political Strategies towards Geoengineering Governance by Janos Pasztor, Executive Director, Carnegie Climate Governance Initiative (C2G), Carnegie Council for Ethics in International Affairs

Discussion

17:45-18:00 Conclusions and Follow-up

Ronald A. Kingham, Executive Director, Environment & Development Resource Centre