

AARON PAUL

INTERNATIONAL RECORDING ARTIST

BIO_LONG

12/2018

LIFE

Aaron Paul is a multi-talented singer, songwriter, author, host, model and fashionista, whose illustrious career spans three decades on two continents.

Aaron's gift for music announced itself at an early age and by his teenage years, he had assembled a local group which performed all over his native London, UK. Aaron was eventually discovered by the legendary Simon Cowell, who brought him into the teen sensation boyband Worlds Apart as its lead frontman. The group skyrocketed to worldwide fame, making Aaron and his bandmates household names.

After performing with Worlds Apart for several years, Aaron emigrated to New York City to pursue his music career. Aaron reinvented himself as a critically-acclaimed solo artist, fashion celebrity host, media personality which gave him the honor to fulfill his duty as Us Weekly Magazine Fashion Cop. In 2018, Aaron reached stunning new heights when he performed at world-famous, historic venue Carnegie Hall in New York City.

Aaron has completed his final touches on his latest album, DANCE, which features duets with legendary Hip-Hop / TV pioneer Doctor Dre and New York celebrated nightlife and media columnist Michael Musto. DANCE Album is expected to be released in 01/2019.

MUSIC

Aaron's contemporary discography showcases his talents as a vocalist, songwriter and producer. His singles and albums enjoy widespread popularity, both at home in the US and far abroad. Aaron's breakout chart-buster, I Don't Care, was a worldwide #1 hit.

AARON PAUL

INTERNATIONAL RECORDING ARTIST

BIO_LONG

12/2018

Today, his latest EP collection,
DANCE

to be released in 01/2019, includes a hot new duet with Village Voice icon Michael Musto. Aaron also works with international artists, as he did in 2017 with UK-based rocker Simon Bradshaw of Roja and WeatheredMan, producing the song and music video Hand In My Pocket, on both sides of the Atlantic.

Aaron continues to compose and record in his unique, inimitable style, delighting audiences everywhere with his electrifying, provocative tracks that speak to the mind as well as the heart. A socially aware artist, Aaron has addressed issues of the day, including homophobia, racism, and terrorism, with his signature hit, Every Life Matters, featuring film star Tym Moss and drag queen Honey Davenport. A portion of the song's proceeds was given to the OnePULSE Foundation, which helps survivors of the Pulse nightclub massacre and their families.

FASHIONABLE & FIERCE

Aaron is also a highly sought-after host for various run-way shows during New York Fashion Week, where his eye-catching ensembles, live performances, and stage presence captivate audiences at such major events as Small Boutique Fashion Week and World Fashion Parade. Aaron graces the runway with his customary grandeur, as fashion industry professionals, media, and models converge on the Big Apple from all over the globe. Aaron's expertise as a host and stylist enabled him to earn his badge as one of Us Weekly's Fashion Cops, critiquing the best (and worst) celebrity attire at gala happenings like the Grammys and Oscars. Appearing alongside today's top names in music, film, and TV, Aaron and the Fashion Police are trendsetters in contemporary apparel and standard-bearers of style.

Aaron's extensive experience as a fashionista has prepared him well for this marquee role at the cutting edge of modern vogue.

For additional information please visit www.aaronpaulmusic.com

/EPK /contact or contact

Aaron Paul via mailto: apmusicandproductions@gmail.com

Thank you.

2/2