Demonstrate Professional Standards to visiting Dignitaries

Dignitary Protection skills are in growing demand due to the increasing range of threats being directed at key leaders and organisations. At the same time, security forces need to continually upgrade their Dignitary Protection ability to be able to demonstrate a professional level of skills when coordinating with other agencies.

- such as the inter-agency coordination of local VIP teams with national-level VIP teams visiting your area.
- when you are responsible for protecting the movement of VIP's across state borders, coordinating professionally with your adjacent State and Provincial VIP Teams.

Three Layer Protection

Level 1 we strengthen Dignitary and Witness Protection teams in venue and accommodation security measures, motorcade, plane and train movements, bomb search and response tactics, as well as medical response, close protection team duties and escorts to VIP walk-a rounds.

Level 2 develops Team Leaders and advanced skills for High Threat situations such as command of inner and outer layers, threat assessments, coordinating response teams and tactics when external and national VIP teams visit your province or state, countering sophisticated explosive, chemical and biological threats, VIP Team leader duties

Level 3 covers the planning and conduct of Dignitary Protection operations up to and including Presidential Visits. Co-ordination of unarmed and armed Police with Senior Diplomatic and Presidential protection measures, advanced threat assessments to counter the new assassination techniques used by terrorists, use of Response teams and Counter-assault techniques, logistic planning to maintain long-duration protection missions, effective division of responsibilities when escorting dignitaries into another police or security area, diplomatic protocols, Senior Diplomatic and Presidential protection level management

Experienced Instructors

Our Dignitary Protection instructors are very experienced and include leaders who have been responsible for security planning for visiting Ministers of foreign governments and other visiting Heads of State. Our Director of Dignitary Protection has also managed all Dignitary Protection task for Australian VIP's visiting high risk Middle Eastern countries. The Dignitary Protection team are graduates of International academies and have extensive experience planning and managing numerous international conferences, inter-state visits and threat assessments.
