Keep healthy

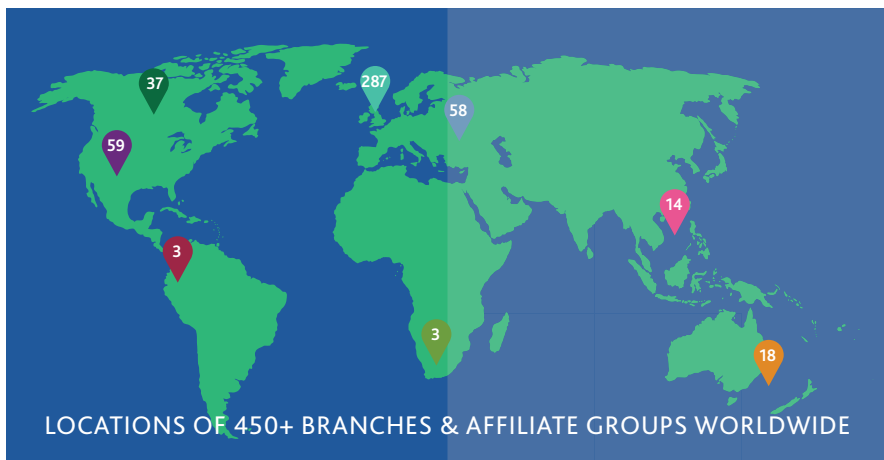

Did you know that Scottish Country Dancing is uniquely placed to deliver a range of health benefits? Various academic studies confirm evidence that Scottish Country Dancing is an effective recreational exercise for particular types of fitness, with extensive measurable benefits for older people.

Meet new people - make life-long friends

As a member you can attend an RSCDS event anywhere; in a beautiful rural Castle, a historic town or a cosmopolitan city on any continent globally (except Antarctica!) - members often travel to other branches to attend events.

Over the course of a year the RSCDS holds three main events: Winter School (Feb) in Pitlochry, Scotland; Spring Fling (April) in locations changing between UK and Europe; Summer School (late July/early Aug) in St. Andrews, Scotland. We also have our popular Conference Weekend in Perth (Nov) which attracts members from across the globe. Or, if you simply want to dance locally; sign up for classes or attend a Branch event near to you. Become a member through a branch (local branch, international branch or youth branch) or through HQ - see over to find out how.

How do I join?

Can anyone join the RSCDS?

Individual membership is open to everyone from age 12 years; the Society welcomes people of all nationalities. Membership is offered through Branches worldwide or through Headquarters. To become a member of a specific Branch (including local branches, International or Youth Branch), use our Branches & Groups page on the RSCDS website and speak to a Branch representative about membership. Direct membership is possible through RSCDS Headquarters too, though we encourage you to join through a branch. You will receive all the benefits of Branch membership, but as a HQ member you will not be party to local Branch events. To apply for Headquarters membership, email info@rscds.org.

Like to chat about individual membership?
